

Internship

Junior developer / Assistant of Project Manager

We are WESTHOUSE ITALIA recruitment agency. For our important client we are looking for students or fresh graduates, who would like to start their first job experience in the field of IT.

Where?

Milan, Italy. In the company which leads international provider of strategic solutions and software operations in the aerospace, military, fashion industries.

What we are looking for?

Candidates must be a curious, open minded, driven by enthusiasm and a strong desire to learn. Are you available to stay in the company for 6 months or longer? You would like to stay in the company after the internship - this is an opportunity for you!

Requirements:

- Fluent English, other additional languages are welcome such as Italian and German
- University Degree (or enrolled) in Computer Science, Informatics, Automatics, Robotics, Engineering in general
- Good knowledge of Matlab, C#, simulink, unity 3d etc.
- Proactive, communicative person with the sense of responsibility
- Multitasking, pro-active attitude, good organizational skills
- Availability to do internship by Erasmus+ program.

What you will do?

During the internship you will be working in either hardware or software department providing help to the Team. You will be responsible for writing technical notes and later on for implementing them.

What you will get?

- 6 months or longer internship in an international company with a leading presence in the market
- Reinforcement of your language skills and intercultural competencies
- Possibility to be hired as an internal employee, also in other branches of the company (preferably)
- Possibility to receive economical support from the company during the internship.

Contact us and we will tell you more!

Apply via email g.mirkyte@westhouse.it with internship name in the mail subject.